REFERENCES

All Web references were accessed June 2004 unless otherwise indicated.

YANOMAMI INTERVIEWS

Hawarixapitheri, Alexandre

Kopenawa, Davi

Krokonautheri, Carlos

Kuesitheri Yanomami, Geraldo

Parawautheri, Geraldo

Pirisitheri, Roberto

Porapitheri, Peri

Seripino, José
References

Wawanawetery, Ivanildo

Wichato, Julio

Yanomami, Toto

Books and Other References

Albert, Bruce

Albert, Bruce, and Alcida Rita Ramos

Albert, Bruce, and G. Goodwin Gomez

Alcantara, Eurípedes

Ales, C.
Anthropology News

Alphonso, C.

American Anthropological Association (AAA)

Appiah, K. Anthony

Arvelo Jimenez, N.

Asad, Talal

Athias, Renato, and M. Machado
2001 Indigenous People’s Health and the Implementation of Health Districts in 346 References

Australia National Health and Medical Research Council

Barfield, Thomas

Barker, J.

Barth, Fredrik

Booth, William

Borgerhoff Mulder, M.

Borofsky, Robert

Borofsky, Robert, ed.

Bourdieu, P.

Brenneis, Donald

Canada Tri-Council Working Group on Ethics

Carneiro da Cunha, Manuela

Carvalho, Dr. Fernando Sergio Viana Martins Cassell, Joan, and Sue-Ellen Jacobs, eds.

Cetina, Karin Knorr

Chagnon, Napoleon

Chagnon, Napoleon, et al.

Chiñas, B.

Clifford, James

Coimbra Jr., C. E. A., and R. V. Santos

Comision Pro Yanomami (CPY)/Médecins Sans Frontiéres (MSF-Holland)

Cristaldo, Janer
1994a Massacre ou “panelocidio”? Folha de São Paulo, May.
1994b Os bastidores do Inablefe. Folha de São Paulo, April.

Cronk, L., N. Chagnon, and W. Irons
348 References

Cunningham, H.

Curran, Jeanne, and Susan Takata

Davis, S.

Durkheim, Emile

Early, John D., and John F. Peters

Eguillor Garcia, M. I.

El Nacional

Ember, Carol, and Melvin Ember

Evans, Patsy

Evans-Pritchard, E. E.

Fabian, Johannes

Fackelman, K.

Farage, N.
Ferguson, R. B.

Fluehr-Lobban, Carolyn, ed.

Folha de São Paulo

Fontenay, E. de

Fortes, M., and E. E. Evans-Pritchard, eds.

Foster, M. W., A. J. Eisenbraun, and T. H. Carter

Friedlaender, J., ed.

Furtado Filho, C.
2001 Memo no. 019/CGAE/20001 to the General Coordination of Studies and Research. Brasília: FUNAI (Social Communication Department).

Galison, Peter

Geertz, Clifford

Gonçalves, Marco Antônio

Good, Kenneth

Greely, H. T.

Gregor, Thomas, and Daniel Gross

Gregory, Juno

Grinker, Roy Richard
350  References

Habermas, Jürgen

Hames, R.

Hammond, E.

Harry, D.
1995  Patenting of Life and Its Implications for Indigenous People. IPR-Info 7 (January).

Haviland, William

Headland, Tom

Hemming, John

Hereniko, Vilsoni

Hill, Jane

Hitchcock, R.

Holy, Ladislav

Human Genome Diversity Project (HGDP)

Humboldt, A. V.
1851/
Hume, David

Hurtado A. M.
1990 Letter to the Editor. Anthropology Newsletter 31(3).

Hurtado, Magdalena, Kim Hill, Hillard Kaplan, and Jane Lancaster

Hymes, Dell

Irons, W.

Kame’eleihiwa, Lilikal

Keesing, Felix

Keesing, Roger

Koch-Grünberg, T.

Kottak, Conrad

Kroeber, Alfred

Kuper, Adam, and Jessica Kuper, eds.

Lamphere, Louise

Lee, R.

Leo, John

Levi-Strauss, Claude

Lewin, Roger Lewontin, Richard

Lindee, S.

Lizot, J.
1976 The Yanomami in the Face of Ethnocide. Copenhagen: IWGIA.

Lobo, Dr. Maria Stella, Dr. Karis Maria Pinho Rodrigues, Dr. Diana Maul de Carvalho, and Dr. Fernando Sergio Viana Martins

Marcos A.

Marcus, George, and Michael Fischer

Mariz Maia, L.

Mauss, M.

McFeely, Eliza

Meek, James
Miller, D. W.

Milliken, W., and B. Albert, with G. Goodwin Gomez

Monaghan, Peter

Moreno, J. D.

Nader, Laura

Nanda, Serena, and Richard Warms

National Academy of Sciences

National Commission for the Protection of Human Subjects of Biomedical and Behavioral Research

Neel, James V.

Neel, J. V., W. R. Centerwall, and N. A. Chagnon

New Scientist
2000 They Need Your DNA. But People Who Give a Blood Sample Have a Right to Know What It Is Used For (editorial). September 30.
354 References

Nuñez, Marielba.
2000 Por denuncias de Tierney prohibieron investigaciones en zonas indígenas anavanax/darkness_in_el_dorado/documents/0431.htm.

Oliveira, D. de
1977 Memo no. 202/COAMA/77C14/6/77 to the President of FUNAI. Brasília: FUNAI (Amazonia Coordination).

Oliven, R. G.
2000 Statement of the Brazilian Anthropological Association to Be Read at the Panel “Ethical Issues in Field Research among the Yanomami” at the Annual Meeting of the American Anthropological Association, San anavanax/darkness_in_el_dorado/documents/0256.htm.

Paul, Diane, and John Beatty Electronic document, http://members.aol.com/lithicat/darkness_in_el_ dorado/documents/0186.htm.

Peters, John F.
1998 Life among the Yanomami: The Story of Change among the Xilixana on the

Putnam, Robert

Rabben, L.
1998 Unnatural Selection: The Yanomami, the Kayapó, and the Onslaught of Ramos, A. R.

Press.
of Anthropology, University of Brasilia.

Rawls, John
2001 Justice as Fairness: A Restatement. Edited by Erin Kelly. Cambridge, MA:
Harvard University Press.

Regush, Nicholas
2000 Who Should Investigate: Looking at Conflict of Interest in Biomedicine, Part Two. ABC News Online, October 5, http://members.aol.com/nyin111111/darkness_in_el_dorado/documents/0070.htm.

Reiss, S.
1990 The Last Days of Eden: The Yanomami Indians Will Have to Adapt to the Ribeiro, D.

1967 Indigenous Cultures and Languages of Brazil. In Indians of Brazil in 1997 The Yanomami and Their Interpreters: Fierce People or Fierce Interpreters. Lanham, MD: University Press of America.

Salopek, Paul 1997a Basically, We Are All the Same. Controversial Genetic Quest Is Unlocking Secrets of the Human Rainbow. Chicago Tribune, April 27.

1997b Genes Offer Sampling of Hope and Fear. Cures Possible, but Groups Worry about Exploitation. Chicago Tribune, April 28.

References

Segerstrale, Ulicca

Shapin, Steven

Shapiro, J.

Smiljanic Borges, M. I.

Smith, Geri

Smith, E., M. Borgerhoff Mulder, and K. Hill

Smith E., and B. Winterhalder, eds.

Sontag, Susan

Souza, A. O. de, et al.
1997 An Epidemic of Tuberculosis with a High Rate of Tuberculin Energy among a Population Previously Unexposed to Tuberculosis, the Yanomami Indians of the Brazilian Amazon. Proceedings of the National Academy of Sciences 94 (November 25):13227–32.

Spindler, George, and Louise Spindler

Sponsel, Leslie

Sponsel, Leslie, and Terence Turner

Srikameswaran, Anita

Survival International

Taylor, K.
Thomas, E. M.

Thomas, William, ed.

Tierney, Patrick

Time Magazine
2001 Cover, March 19.

Todorov, T.

Trask, Haunani-Kay

Turnbull, Colin

Turner, Terence

Turner, Terence, and John Stevens

References

Turner, Terence, and Leslie Sponsel.

Turner, T., and C. Nagengast, eds.

Turner, Trudy, and Jeffrey Nelson

UNESCO
2000 La propriété intellectuelle dans le domaine du génome humain. Paris (December).

Urihi Saúde Yanomami

Valero, H.

Vergano, Dan

Weber, M.

Weiss, K. M.

Weiss, K., et al.

Wilbert, J., and K. Simoneau, eds.

Wilford, John Noble

Wilford, John Noble, and Simon Romero

Wong, K.

World Medical Association
INDEX

acculturation, 310
Ache, 129
Aguilera, Judge, 36
Albert, Bruce, 60, 123, 137–38, 220, 270
background, 73–74
on biomedical ethics, 245–47
See also blood samples
Roche’s iodine uptake research, 172
on Chagnon, 81, 82, 161–65
on distorted portrayals of indigenous peoples, 97
and “do no harm” ethic, 161–65
on ensuring professional integrity, 111–14, 214, 216–17
on establishing credibility, 112, 166, 214, 230
on genealogical research, 82, 164–65, 300
and informed consent, 114–15, 160–61, 168, 221–24
interview with Kopenawä, 62–64
on just compensation, 118, 124, 163, 165, 219, 220, 226
on land rights, 245
on lawsuits, 188, 260
on missionaries, 268
on Neel as facilitating the spread of measles, 113, 159
and reduction of indigenous suffering, 245
on violent stereotype of Yanomami, 81, 161–62
alcohol use, 144
“Alpha males,” 202
American Anthropological Association (AAA), 35–36, 95–96, 146, 266. See also anthropology, cultural, American; El Dorado Task Force
Ad Hoc Task Force, 46–48
advocacy for Yanomami, 292
avoidance of divisive issues, 92–94 “Code of Ethics,” 19–40 gap between AAA response to Yanomami controversy and, 91–93 relevant provisions of, 274–75
“Commission to Review the AAA Statements on Ethics,” 92–93, 285, 287 Committee on Ethics, 35, 46, 104–5, 121
ethics (and norms), 8–10, 103, 284–85.
See also “do no harm” ethic;
informed consent
ambivalent response, 14–15, 44–52 educational efforts regarding, 287–88
membership participation in ethical deliberations, 288–89
financial struggles, 92
holding it accountable, 103–5, 267
initial response to Darkness in El Dorado, 150–51, 267 Kopenawa and, 70
maintaining collegial relations with other associations, 287. See also Brazilian Anthropological Association, relations with AAA membership, 92
open forum at 2000 annual meeting, 46–48
“Questions and Answers,” 46
AAA (continued)
“Statement on Allegations Made in the Book Darkness in El Dorado”, 46
American Anthropologist, 94
American Philosophical Society (APS) archive, 151, 152 anthropological research, 269. See also specific topics toward collaborative models of, 312–13 anthropologist(s), 196. See also specific topics accountability for their ideas, 98–99 arguing past one another, 16–17 credibility. See credibility criticism of indigenous activists, 83
disclosure of theories to subjects, 264
in the field, 145–46
sharing their first-hand experience, 57–58
as hero, 43
impact of their ethnographic accounts, 81–82, 144, 286–87. See also ethnographic description personality traits, 102
priorities, 203–5
private vs. public behavior of, 102–3 problematic way they seek to resolve controversies, 57–60
as “professional,” 146–47
profits gained by, 53–54, 56–57
from book royalties, 68–69, 132, 133, 168n6
relations with the people they study, 261–65
ethical obligations regarding, 39–40.
See also "do no harm" ethic; informed consent models/styles of, 40–43
as researcher, 142–45
experience of superior status, 143 response to misuse of their work, 80 responsibility and representation, 310
scrutinizing their own behaviors, 268–69
specialization, 72–73
who have studied Yanomami, 6, 273
working in foreign countries, 89–91
questions to ponder regarding, 91
working with communities to address needs as they stipulate, 89
Yanomami views of anthropology and, 69–71 anthropology, cultural, 94–95
American. See also American Anthropological Association concern with ethics, 94–95 ethics, 102–3. See also ethics as four-field discipline, and lack of coherence, 93–94
state of, 93–94
unifying principles in, 93–94
definitions, 53
postcolonial vision of, 95–96
Asad, Talal, 54
Asch, Timothy, 31, 180
Atomic Energy Commission (AEC), 115, 117, 164. See also measles vaccination program behavioral ecology, 90n biomedical-anthropological ethical "double standard," 218–21 biomedical ethics, 127–28, 185, 217–18.
See also under Albert, Bruce; Hill, Kim health care and, 110–12
biomedical research, 158–61
epidemiological surveillance vs. experimentation vs. observational, 185–86
"biopiracy," 259
blood samples, 63–66
collection of, 30, 42, 115, 153. See also under Albert, on biomedical ethics as critical to saving Yanomami lives, 204
as having negative impact, 224–25
See also informed consent, in Neel’s research lawsuits and, 228, 230
commercial use of, 227–28
and DNA detection, 227–31
intellectual property rights and, 258
trade goods received in exchange for, 64, 223, 226, 227
what should be done to address Chagnon, Napoleon. (continued)
response to media’s misuse of his work, 236, 336–37
response to politicians’ abuse of his work, 80, 191–92
sharing his first-hand experience, 57–58
students’ criticism of, 52
threats against, 40
unethical conduct. See under El Dorado Task Force reports, allegations writings. See also Yanomamo “Doing Fieldwork among the Yanomami,” 22–24 impact of, 137–39, 178–79
royalties from books, and compensation to Yanomami, 87, 132–33, 163, 165, 173, 339–40
writing style, 39
Yanomami lives put at risk by, 302
Yanomami’s knowledge about, 195
Chagnon-Salesian controversy. See missionaries, Salesian, Chagnon’s criticisms of Chernela, Janet, 48, 49, 63, 295, 299
Chiñas, Beverly, 123
Clifford, James, 40, 54
“Code of Ethics.” See under American Anthropological Association comparative method, 93
compensation. See also gifts from anthropologists dynamics of, 173–74
just, 87–89, 118, 165
Albert on, 118, 124, 165, 219, 220, 226
Chagnon’s royalties from his books and, 87, 132, 339–40 guidelines for assessing, 88–89
Hames on, 170, 173
Martins on, 257
offering, 16, 87–89
participants’ positions on what constitutes, 320–22
Peters on, 146
questions to ponder regarding, 89
Terence Turner on, 155–56, 274, 277
conservation, 26
Coronil, Fernando, 48–51, 299
credibility
defining, 98
establishing, 96–100, 179–81
Albert on, 112, 166, 214, 230
Hames on, 120, 125, 170, 235, 240
Kim Hill on, 130, 133–34, 176, 179, 182, 250, 252
Martins on, 190–91, 193, 194
participants’ positions on, 324–27
Terence Turner on, 150, 156, 202–4, 206, 272, 273, 278, 281
ways of, 57–60, 325–26
status and, 58–60
Cristaldo, Janer, 138, 192
cultural adjustments. See acculturation; Chagnon, adaptive/evolutionary approach; social change cultural difference attitudes toward, 94, 212
colonialists and, 123
educating Western audiences about, 95
honoring, 94, 95
Cushing, Frank, 41
Dalstrom, Matthew, 294
Darkness in El Dorado (Tierney), 9–10, 112–13
accusations against Chagnon, 11–13, 112, 128–33
degree of justification and truth in, 120–22, 328
accusations against Neel, 4, 11, 13, 112, 127–28, 241
Tierney’s feelings about, 33
Albert on, 112–13, 159
credibility, 99, 179–81
El Dorado Task Force and, 101–2 ethical issues raised by, 44, 147–51, 195–97, 243–45, 254. See also specific issues best manner for dealing with, 125–34 ethically problematic conduct described in, 275–77
ethics in anthropology and, 140–42
Hames on, 170, 240, 241
initial reactions to publication of, 150–51
Martins on, 261
media and, 12
portrayal of scientists in, 252–53
preliminary vs. published versions, 150–51, 159 problematic aspects of, 134–35, 248–49
main inaccuracies, 327
questions of validity and ethics, 272–74
reflections on, 110–12
science vs. antiscience and, 193–94
sociobiology and, 250–53
Terence Turner on, 45, 60, 99, 152, 159, 204, 248–49, 273, 278
Tierney's motives for writing, 134
Turner-Sponsel memo and, 44–47, 118n2, 149–52
value, 328–29
Darwinian perspective. See sociobiology
Dawson, Mike, 32n dead. See dying persons; violence and warfare decit. See informed consent; name taboos Denis, Bayna, 31, 175, 191
disasters, 85. See also measles epidemic of 1968 disease, 70. See also health care; measles
Western treatment of sick persons, 267–68
Doctors without Borders, Dutch branch of, 217–18
“do no harm” ethic, 16, 39, 55, 56
Albert and, 161–65
following the, 80–86
Hames and, 121, 122, 175, 236, 241–43
issues raised by, 80–86
Kim Hill and, 130–32, 178, 179
Martins and, 116–18, 140, 190–92
participants' positions on, 318–20
Peters and, 267
privacy and, 8a. See also name taboos
questions to ponder regarding, 86–87
Terence Turner and, 198–99, 207, 276
Durkheim, Émile, 72
dying persons
filmed, 306
Western treatment of, 267
Early, John, 166
Edmonston B vaccine. See measles vaccination education of indigenous peoples, 247
El Dorado Task Force, 48–50 composition, 48–49, 242
criticisms of, 48–49
formation, 48
joint letter sent to, 282–90
organic solidarity, 72
purpose, 48
release of documents, 288–89
 allegations, 304–7
against Chagnon, 277–81, 300–304, 307–12
against Neel, 281, 293–300
relating to Chagnon’s problems of representation, 308–10
“Beginning to Mend the Damage,” 299–300 preface vs., 101–2
introductory sections, 291–92
Preliminary Report, 14–15, 50, 293–97, 300–306 positive outcome from uproar following, 51 problems regarding, 50–51
epidemiological surveillance, 185–87
ethical conduct in private vs. in public, 102–3 ethical decisions, 259–60
ethical universalism, 212, 213 ethics, 163–67, 217–18. See also biomedical ethics; specific topics anthropology’s concern with, 94–95 of the discipline of anthropology, 102–3 double standards in, 131
institutional responsibilities, from “atomic” to “genomic” eras, 115–18
ethnocentrism, 123, 143
ethnographic description, political impact of, 119–22, 161–63, 235–37. See also under anthropologist(s) on funding NGOs, 124–25
on government officials, 122–24
eugenics, 251, 252
Evans-Pritchard, E. E., 41, 42

evolutionary perspective. See sociobiology experimentation, 185, 186

Fabian, Johannes, 310
Farage, Nadia, 160
Feast, The (film), 26

Federation of Indian Organizations of the Rio Negro (FIORN), 221

“Feminists Attack the Yanomami,” 213

Ferguson, R. Brian on competition for women and Yanomami conflict, 240
criticism of Chagnon, 31, 112, 191, 242–43, 302
on distribution of trade goods and warfare, 112, 242–43, 302 on metal tools, 5
Ficker, Harvest, 304

“fierce people”
Yanomami as, 8, 81. See also violence and warfare; Yanomamo accuracy of Chagnon’s representations of, 337–38
Albert on, 161–62
challenges to the depiction of, 8, 44, 66–67, 279 discussed in Yanomami interviews, 66–67. See also “Indians Are Also People”
Hames on, 81–82, 121, 175, 198, 238
Kim Hill on, 129
Martins on, 190–91
political ramifications, 62, 119, 121, 122, 135–39, 161–62, 178–79, 198, 214. See also Chagnon, impact of his work in Brazil sociobiology and, 238, 239
Terence Turner on, 201–2, 276, 279
Yanomami self-perception as, 62
films, xvi–xviii. See also Warriors of the Amazon related to Chagnon’s fieldwork, 26
The Feast, 26
and sales of Yanomamo, 39
as staged by Chagnon, 11–12, 31–32
Fischer, Michael, 18
food sharing, 23
FUNAI (Fundação Nacional do Índio), 121, 159, 167, 189, 193, 215, 228

FUNDACFI (Foundation to Aid Peasant and Indigenous Families) project, 12, 207
allegations against Chagnon relating to, 310–12
Kim Hill on, 131, 132
Terence Turner on, 207, 277

Chagnon accused of violating Venezuelan law, 33

Gaccetta, Dominic, 302
Geertz, Clifford, 59, 60
gender roles, 202. See also reproductive behavior; women genealogical research. See blood samples; name taboos genetic fallacy and reductionism, 240 genetic variation. See also sociobiology research in, 187–88. See also blood samples, and DNA detection; radioiodine experiments genocide, accusations of, 33–34 gifts from anthropologists. See also Chagnon, gift giving; compensation; trade goods conflicts caused by, 129, 206 goiter, 187. See also radioiodine experiments gold mining, 8, 31, 16, 80, 132, 207, 279. See also Haxima massacre; mining Gomez, Gale Goodwin, 164, 167

Good, Kenneth, 105
overview, 10–11
government, role of, 245–46
Griaule, Marcel, 40

Hames, Ray, 90n, 162
on anthropologists, 81–82, 269
appointed to Task Force, 49, 50
background, 49, 74
on Chagnon, 83, 97, 173, 223, 236, 243, 300, 302
on Chagnon’s genealogical research, 174, 300–301
on Chagnon’s statements on “fierce-ness,” 81–82, 121, 175, 198, 238 and “do no harm” ethic, 121, 122, 175, 236, 241–43
on ensuring professional integrity, 241, 242
on establishing credibility, 120, 125, 170, 235, 240
on informed consent, 170–72, 218, 226, 256–57, 260
on just compensation, 170, 173
on missionaries, NGOs, and Chagnon’s Veja interview, 83
on Neel as facilitating the spread of measles, 170, 241
on NGOs, 214
objectivity, 263
on political uses of Chagnon’s work, 81–82, 121–23, 174–75, 189–91, 235–37, 302 on radioiodine experiments, 222
on relations between researchers and indigenous peoples, 221 resignation from Task Force, 52, 280, 307
Hammond, E., 229
Haviland, William, 39
Hawarixapopitheri, Alexandre, 65
Haxima massacre, 138, 192, 215–16
health care, providing, 217–19, 267–68.
See also biomedical research Neel’s responsibility for, 334
health project, 137–39
health promotion, 196, 197, 230–31
Helsinki Declaration, 76, 77, 114–15, 222, 259
purpose, 258
Hereniko, Vilsoni, 54
Hill, Jane H., 48, 49, 292, 304–6
Hill, Kim. See also Darkness in El Dorado on access and use of knowledge, 194
on anthropologists, 162, 203, 211, 214, 231, 232, 262–64, 269, 271
background, 74
Bruce Albert on, 210–15
criticisms of Albert and Turner, 219
criticisms of Chagnon, 165, 207
and “do no harm” ethic, 130–32, 178, 179
on establishing credibility, 130, 133–34, 176, 179, 182, 250, 252
on ethical decisions, 259–60
on ethics concept, 197
on ethics of (medical) research on indigenous groups, 157, 159–61, 204, 205, 218–19, 233–25, 227, 231, 257, 259–61, 267
on financial gains and compensation, 132, 133, 165 sharing royalties, 168n6, 173
on genealogical research and breaking name taboo, 82, 130–31 on human nature, 203
on human rights advocacy, 262, 263
on “ideological holy war,” 193
on indigenous rights, 262
on informed consent, 128, 185–86, 246–47, 261–64
on lawsuits, 230, 260–61
on missionaries, 268–69
on “moral criticism,” 262
on Neel, 84, 183, 188, 218, 245, 260. See also under measles vaccination program on Nuremberg Code, 222–23
objectivity, 263
sociobiology and, 90, 194, 200, 202, 203, 209
on Tierney’s ethical problems, 204–6, 209
on trade goods causing conflicts, 129, 163
on vaccinations, 84, 159–60, 205, 260
Holy, Ladislav, 93
homosexuality, 305. See also under sexual behavior
Hopkins, Elizabeth, 301
Human Genome Diversity Project (HGDP), 225, 231, 261
blood samples available to, 116, 171 informed consent and, 169, 171, 258–59
Human Genome Project (HGP), 247, 261 human rights, 26
cultural relativism and, 210–13
human rights advocacy, 262. See also indigenous activists credibility and, 179
truth and responsibility in, 214–17
human rights organizations. See nongovernmental organizations human rights violations, 211
Hurtado, Magdalena, 129, 132, 133, 175n3
Hymes, Dell, 94
Ik, 55–56
Index of Innate Ability (IIA), 200, 201
Indian rights groups, 81
Indians, idealized image of vs. the “real,” 192, 236, 235–54, 309–10
“Indians Are Also People” (Chagnon), 81, 83, 163, 192, 236, 309–10 indigenous activists, 83, 84, 262. See also human rights advocacy
indigenous cultures
contributions to their own problems, 144–45
falsely portraying, 97. See also “fierce people,” Yanomami as; human rights advocacy, truth and responsibility in; Yanomami, aspects omitted in research and publications
in overly positive light, 214, 236, 262.
See also under Indians; non-governmental organizations
norm of keeping the status quo in, 166 rights of, 97. See also human rights;
native rights
indigenous suffering, pragmatic steps to reducing, 245
infanticide, 122, 197, 235, 236
informed consent, 15–17, 76–79, 240.
See also under Albert, on biomedical ethics; blood samples
Albert and, 114–15, 160–61, 168, 221–
24 biomedical research and, 112–17, 160, 184, 221–26, 246–47
extreme views regarding, 226
cultural assumptions and, 171
definition and elements of, 76, 184, 246
education of native peoples and, 247
Hames on, 170–72, 218, 226, 256–57, 260
vs. helping one’s research subjects, 78
historical perspective on, 76, 77, 168
Kim Hill on, 128, 185–86, 246–47, 261–64
levels of information required, 246
Martins on, 195, 255–57, 334
in Neel’s research, 77–79, 293–95, 330–31. See also under blood samples, collection of one-time vs. continuous, 79
parameters of, 76–79, 246, 268
participants’ positions on, 317–18
Peters on, 171, 268
questions to ponder regarding, 79–80
in radiiodine experiments, 10, 128, 160, 222, 230, 246, 258
and telling it like it is, 168–73
Terence Turner on, 152, 277
Institutional Review Boards (IRBs), 168
interviews with Yanomami, 61–63, 84.
See also under Kopenawä
blood samples discussed in, 63–65
depiction of Yanomami fierceness discussed in, 66–67
Irons, W., 47
jury trial model, 73, 110
Karitiana, 228
Katz, Samuel, 45, 151
Keesing, Felix, 53
Koch-Grünberg, T., 121
Kopenawa, Davi, 137
Albert’s interview with, 63, 64
on anthropologists, 68–70
on blood samples, 63–65
on Chagnon, 66–69, 81, 84
Chagnon’s criticisms of, 13, 26–27, 37,
83, 163, 195, 208, 303, 304
Chernela’s interview with, 63, 66–69 human rights groups and, 163
as spokesperson for non-Yanomami “mentors,” 83
on Tierney, 68
as translator, 63
view of the controversy, 68–69
Kroeber, Alfred, 53, 102
Lamphere, Louise, 48–50, 179, 242
land reserve, 132. See also FUNDAFACI argument over, 8, 136–37
Chagnon’s efforts to gain control of, 338–39
“fierceness” of Yanomami and, 62, 119, 121 land rights, 245
lawsuits, 118, 188, 230, 260–61
Leach, Edmund, 139
leaders. See also spokesperson(s)/representative(s) puppet, 248
Leo, John, 179
Lévi-Strauss, Claude, 54, 185, 219
Lizot, Jacques, 117, 306
on Chagnon, 5, 10, 32, 37
overview, 10
sexual relations with Yanomami boys, 10, 112, 305–6 support for Yanomami, 10
on Yanomami violence, 5, 10, 32
Mabalot, Diana, 305
Macuxi, 195
male-female relations, 43. See also reproductive behavior; women Márquez, Colonel, 36
Martins, Lêda Leitão, 162
on AAA code of ethics, 90–91
background, 74
on blood sampling, 78–79, 334
on Chagnon, 90–91, 137–40, 191–92, 263
on Chagnon’s portrayal of Yanomami, 190–91, 236
criticism of Neel, 260
on Darkness in El Dorado, 261
and “do no harm” ethic, 136–38, 140, 190–92
on education of native peoples, 247
on ensuring professional integrity, 140, 264
on establishing credibility, 190–91, 193, 194
on informed consent, 105, 255–57, 334
interviews of Yanomami, 62–65
on just compensation, 257
Kim Hill on, 178, 179
on NGOs, 235, 237, 238, 247
massacre, Haxima, 138, 192, 215–16
Matos, Cecelia, 33, 131–32, 207, 279
Maybury-Lewis, David, 124
McFeely, Eliza, 41
Mead, Margaret, 315
measles epidemic of 1968, 7, 84, 151–53, 223. See also Tierney, accusations against Neel Neel accused of not doing enough to help Yanomami, 30, 84–85, 91
Neel’s concern about research vs. helping Yanomami during, 30, 113, 153–55, 260, 295–99, 331–33 measles immune gamma globulin (MIG), 85–86, 114, 297 measles vaccination, violent reactions to, 85 measles vaccination program, Neel’s 1968 Orinoco, 7, 78, 83, 163, 170, 205. See also measles epidemic of 1968 biomedical and anthropological research ethics and, 217–18 and biomedical research, 158–61
contradictions in Terence Turner’s position regarding, 182–83 as facilitating the spread of measles, 29–30, 113, 125, 151–52, 245, 329–30
Albert on, 113, 159
Hames, 170, 241
Terence Turner on, 151
flaws in how it was conducted, 114
governmental authorization for vaccination, 172
Kim Hill on, 84, 125, 127, 159–60, 182, 183, 205, 245, 260
Neel’s priorities in, 153–55
as reckless human experimentation, 113, 125–27
Médecins Sans Frontières (MSF)-Holland, 217 media, 12
Chagnon’s response to misuse of his work by, 236, 336–37
Albert on, 162–63
Hames on, 121–23, 174–75, 235–37
Kim Hill on, 178, 179
Martins on, 137–40, 191–92
Peters on, 267
Terence Turner on, 198–99, 206, 275
medicines, 174. See also biomedical research Miller, D. W., 48, 51
miners, expulsion of, 137
mining, 33, 132, 207. See also gold mining missionaries, 83, 176–78
nongovernmental organizations (NGOs), 105, 111, 144, 166, 248
anthropologists’ relations with, 83 Chagnon on, 236
criticisms of, 236, 237, 247–48
goals, 237
Hames on, 83, 214
issues not addressed by, 197
Martins on, 235, 237, 238, 247
negative portrayals of indigenous peoples and funding for, 124–25, 262. See also Indians portraying indigenous peoples in overly positive light, 214, 236. See also Indians types of, 248
Nuer of Sudan, 41
blood sampling and, 257–59
purpose, 258
objectivity, 18, 97, 99
observational research, 185–86
organic solidarity, 72, 93
orientalism, 44
Orinoco epidemic. See measles epidemic of 1968
Orinoco expedition. See measles vaccination program Paleolithic, life in the, 239
peace-making negotiation, 302
Peer, Karisa, 301
Peters, John F.
background, 74–75, 142, 166
on CCPY, 166, 168n7
criticism of Chagnon, 267
and “do no harm” ethic, 267
on ensuring professional integrity, 144, 146–47, 268
ethical issues raised by, 92, 176
genealogical research, 82
on informed consent, 171, 268
on just compensation, 146
Kim Hill on, 176, 178, 188
missionaries and, 166, 167
on power and economic differentials, 173
on research efforts vs. helping indigenous peoples, 197, 267

amuses by, 176–77, 210–11
anthropologists and, 145
evicted by native groups, 177–78
portraying indigenous peoples in overly positive light, 214, 236
Salesian, 11, 134
Chagnon’s criticisms of, 36–37, 138, 175, 236
“us” vs. “them” distinction, 268
vaccinations placed in hands of, 296–97
Möawà, 40
Monaghan, Peter, 303
Nader, Laura, 93
name taboos, 164
and ethics of Chagnon’s methods of collecting genealogies, 23–24, 32, 40, 82, 164–65, 334–35
Albert on, 164–65
Kim Hill on, 130–31
Kopenawa on, 67, 83
Task Force’s Preliminary Report, 300–301
Terence Turner on, 206, 276, 280
Tierney on, 130–31
Yanomami on, 82–83
Nanda, Serena, 39
native rights, 26
naturalistic fallacy, 133
nature reserve. See land reserve
Neel, James V. See also blood samples, collection of; Darkness in El Dorado;
El Dorado Task Force reports, allegations; informed consent; measles epidemic of 1968; measles vaccination; sociobiology; Tierney; Turner, Terence
background, 183
collaboration with Chagnon, 7, 42
Kim Hill on, 84, 218, 260
overview, 6–7
responsibilities for dealing with medical problems, 334
Kim Hill on, 183, 188, 245
Martins on, 260
Neel-Chagnon model of primitive society, 202, 203
Nelson, Jeffrey, 295–98
noble savage image, 238
social change. See also acculturation; Chagnon, adaptive/evolutionary approach anthropological and missionary views of, 166–67 social solidarity, mechanical vs. organic, 72, 93 social structure/organization, 201, 202
social value judgments, 143
sociobiology, 238–40, 249–53
campaign against, 133–35, 250–53 ‘anti-sociobiological plot’ against Chagnon, 165–66 connotations of the term, 90
in the work of Chagnon and Neel, 90, 133–34, 200–203, 251–53
Yanomami’s conception of, 194
Souza, Alexandra de, 230
Spindler, George, 39, 43
Spindler, Louise, 39, 43
spiritual world, Yanomami, 166–67, 269
spokesperson framework, 83
spokesperson(s)/representative(s). See also Kopenawä for indigenous peoples, 248
for Yanomami, 61, 83, 336 coached to legitimize their ideological oppression, 133–34, 263
lack of a single, 61, 83
Sponsel, Leslie
criticisms of Chagnon, 58, 60, 208, 242
Darkness in El Dorado and, 242. See also Turner-Sponsel memo on El Dorado Task Force, 292–93
on measles vaccination campaign, 45–46
on political use of portrayals of Yanomami violence, 241 warning to leadership, 280, 281
on Yanomamo, 39
Stevenson, Matilda, 41
students, anthropology, 51–52, 95
Surui Indians, 228
Survival International, 238
taboo, violating, 41. See also under name taboos
Taylor, Kenneth, 167
Ticuna Indians, 229
Tierney, Patrick. See also Darkness in El Dorado; specific topics accusations against Chagnon, 11–14, 28–33
American anthropology’s response to, 14–15
validity of, 205–8, 249
accusations against Neel, 7, 11–14, 28–30, 45–48, 249
credibility, 179–81
criticism of Neel, 251, 252
Kopenawä on, 68–69
overview, 9–10
Peters on, 145
sharing his first-hand experience with Yanomami, 58
Terence Turner on, 60, 149, 150, 194, 208, 281
writings, 147
accuracy of, 179–81
The Highest Altar: The Story of Human Sacrifice, 9
Torry, Antonio Luis, 165
trade goods. See also gifts from anthropologists and conflicts, 112, 161–64, 242–43, 302
in exchange for blood samples, 64, 223, 226, 227
trickery. See informed consent; name taboos
Turnbull, Colin M., 55–56
Turner, Terence
background, 49, 75
Chagnon’s criticisms of, 37–38
contradictions of his position, 182–83
criticisms of, 295–96
on Darkness in El Dorado, 45, 60, 99, 159, 248–49. See also Turner-Sponsel memo
and “do no harm” ethic, 198–99, 207, 276
on ensuring professional integrity, 277–78, 281
on establishing credibility, 150, 156, 202–4, 206, 207, 272, 273, 278, 281
on informed consent, 152, 277
on just compensation, 155–56, 274, 277
on Neel, 50, 84, 151–55, 158–59, 203, 251, 252, 296, 297 on sociobiology, 238–39, 250
on Task Force, 297
on Tierney, 60, 149, 150, 194, 208, 281
on Yanomami “fierceness,” 201–2, 276, 279
Turner, Trudy, 48, 49, 293–98
Turner, Victor, 18
Turner-Sponsel memo, 44–47, 118n2, 149–52
Ulrich, Andrew, 306–7
unokai, 201, 202
Valero, Helena, 12, 32
Vance, Amy, 305–6
“veil of ignorance” approach, 56, 88, 103, 286
Villarías-Robles, Juan, 293 violence and warfare, 43, 269. See also “fierce people”; infanticide; women, abuse of; Yanomami Warfare, Yanomamo
against Chagnon, 40, 41, 44
Chagnon’s depiction of Yanomami as in state of chronic, 5, 25
Chagnon’s portrayal of, 28, 30–31, 130, 174–75
American audiences’ reactions to, 43–44
comparison of Yanomami and Western, 81
as intermittent, 31 types and causes of, 43, 239–40. See also reproductive behavior,
sociobiology and
Chagnon’s gift giving as stimulating violence, 31, 38, 66, 129–30, 164, 206, 242–43, 276, 279–80, 335
Ferguson’s theory, 242–43
male conflicts over women, 201–2, 239
waiteri (courageous), 66
Ward, Ryk, 170, 298
Warns, Richard, 39
Warriors of the Amazon (film), 32n
allegations of unethical conduct regarding, 306–7
Watkins, Joe, 48, 49
Wawanawetery, Ivanildo, 64–65
Wichato, Julio, 63, 64, 67, 83
Wilbert, J., 166
Wilson, E. O., 8, 9
women abuse of, 212, 213. See also sexual behavior conflicts over, 8
Wongk, 8
Xiriana, Piri, 61, 83
Yanomami, 4. See also specific topics aspects omitted in research and publications, 269
the bad, the good, and the hopeful, 269–70 collaboration between research community and, 105
ethnographers who have written about, 5–6 exploitation by outsiders, 121
expulsion of outsiders, 137 importance in anthropology, 4–6 isolation, 121
knowledge regarding Yanomami controversy, 195
as last major primitive tribe, 5 names for, 4
outside changes engulfing, 26
positive publicity received by, 70 present perceptions of 1968 expedition, 318 relations with other societies, 5, 121
self-representations, 62, 81
Yanomami, Geraldo Kuesitheri, 63, 65, 69
Yanomami, Toto, 63–65
Yanomami controversy, 3, 11. See also specific topics accusations, 11–14
American anthropology’s response, 14–15, 44–52
early rumblings, 35–38
impact on Yanomami, 13–14
larger questions, 15–17
main characters in, 6–10
methods of decision making regarding, 72–73
new evidence and new readings, 270 specialization and, 72–73
what is right about controversies such as, 17–19
Yanomami perspectives, keeping in mind, 61–62
Yanomami studies, darkness in, 112–13.
See also Darkness in El Dorado
Yanomami Warfare: A Political History
(Ferguson), 38
Chagnon’s review of, 38
Yanomamo: The Fierce People (Chagnon), 4, 7–8
“Balancing the Image of Fierceness” added to, 122 Chagnon’s self-portrayal in, 43 popularity and sales, 39, 43–45, 241
with student audiences, 25–26
revisions of, 24, 42, 308–9
subtitle dropped in fourth edition, 122, 235 themes revealed by the changes made, 24–28 use of word “fierce,” 25, 31
Yanomamö Survival Fund, 163
Yarima, 10, 305
Ye’Kwana, 172–73
Zapotec sex/gender variants, 123–24
Zuni, 41